

ACTLA'S 48TH CONFERENCE

NO TURNING BACK:
COLLABORATING TO DISRUPT AND TRANSFORM
TUTORING AND LEARNING FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE

HOSTED ONLINE ON ZOOM EVENTS
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19 - FRIDAY, APRIL 21, 2023

PUTTING THE "ACT" IN ACTLA

Disruption is a positive act for transformation, supporting student-centered pedagogies like ungrading, embodied learning, social emotional and cultural wealth, and communities of learning.

At ACTLA, we have long imagined:

- transforming the legacy of remediation and deficit-minded pedagogies in Tutoring and Learning Assistance to pedagogies grounded in the community and cultural wealth of the growing diversity of our students
- creating empowering spaces that are trauma informed, and embodying practices of social justice and empowerment
- learning collaboratively and with each other as we inspire and sustain students, mentor tutors, and create learning communities, engaging social emotional learning and embodied learning.

We are not alone in embodying these practices as we transform our centers, the physical and virtual spaces where students come to learn with all of themselves and transform tutor training in response to the neuroscience of learning, social emotional learning, and cultural responsiveness.

ACTLA is the space to grow and learn together, a space of transformation and collaboration that heals and empowers us to reimagine and recreate the role that tutoring and learning centers can play in transforming the lives of students. We invite you to share your wisdom and insight with the ACTLA community.
